

What's the plan?

The Greensboro Planning Department helps guide growth and development in our city. When you see a home or business under construction, the Planning Department has been involved. But most importantly, the Department plans for future houses and people and makes sure that each land use moves our city toward its goal of being a great place to live and work.

Location, Location, Location!

This is a map of Greensboro. The stars show the location of some of Greensboro's landmarks. Can you name them?

1. This downtown museum was built in the Woolworth's store where four N.C. A&T State University students fought racism in 1960.
_____
2. Here's where you can go in the summer to take a dive and make a big splash!
_____
3. This new branch of the Greensboro Public Library is a great place to explore nature and examine the night stars!
_____
4. It's a museum. It's a zoo. It's a planetarium. And don't forget about the pendulum!
_____

College Hill and Ole Asheboro are two of the City's oldest neighborhoods.

